2019 Inspirational Calendar

Dear Friends,
Greetings in Jesus' name,

The time is here to order your 2019 edition of our Inspirational Calendar. The format will be similar to previous calendars—a full colour, folded, appointment style, with a different picture for each month.

This edition will again featuring paintings. All the artwork we use is original, and the pages contain either Bible verses, or other inspirational sayings.

The calendar pages also include some smaller colour photographs, and a Bible verse on each Sunday and holiday.

What is the purpose of this calendar?

For Advertising . . . .

We are offering this calendar to anyone interested who would like to purchase copies for their own use or distribution.

While our focus is on the outreach potential of this calendar, it may also be used by those who wish to have a Bible-based Inspirational Calendar for their business advertising.

For Church Outreach . . . .

One use we encourage is for churches to distribute imprinted copies in their communities during outreach efforts—singings, cottage meetings, etc. This is a good way to reach community homes with a product which encourages God-consciousness, and which will be used in most homes during the course of the year.

We will imprint personalized advertising information on the cover tab, with a quantity purchase of 66 or more calendars.

Tentative delivery time is the middle of October, 2018.

Pre-ordered bulk copies will have confirmed availability, and an extra supply will be stocked which will only be available as long as supplies last.
