

Journey Into Jesus

John Coblentz

A devotional exploration of thirty-two names of our Lord

True Vine. Son of Man. Rabbi. High Priest. Alpha and Omega. Lion of the Tribe of Judah. We've read these names of Jesus in Scripture, but what do they mean? And what do they mean for us?

As a devotional study, Journey Into Jesus takes us beyond mere knowledge to a deeper heart relationship with the Friend of Sinners, our Saviour. We repent, we worship and adore, we love and obey our Captain and Lord. We owe our lives to Him!

A Note From the Author:

How shall we think about the One who came from Heaven to earth, lived among us for thirty-some years, astounded the whole region with His miracles, taught much that is counterintuitive to us, died a criminal's death, appeared to His followers after rising from the dead, and commissioned and inspired them to spread His story all over the world?

One way to think about this Jesus is to consider the many names given to Him—names given prophetically, names given by angel messengers, names given by His followers, names given through special revelations, and even names given by His scoffers.

I chose thirty-two of those names to explore in this study. As I meditated on them, I focused my thinking mainly on the Scriptural texts in which they occur. So this became a devotional study, not a research project. I approached Jesus as a Person and worshiped Him as God's Son.

After exploring each name, I asked myself, "What does this mean for us today? How can we know and experience Jesus in this way?" Often this experiential side made me recall people I have known or people whose stories I have read—people who experienced Jesus in particular ways in their own journey of faith. Surely one of the great joys of being with Jesus and His people in eternity will be listening to the ways we found Him and the ways He revealed Himself to us—the Good Shepherd, the Door, the Light of the World.

I invite you to journey with me in learning to know the One who is our Life. Oh come, let us adore Him!
